< BIOGRAPHY >

Ever since he was young, Tak Sugita has shown a profound appreciation for arts and crafts, as he found himself immersed in drawings of his own.

As he entered his undergraduate days, he was already assisting contemporary fine artists before becoming a fashion photographer and going to travel the globe for all kinds of photoshoots.

Now based in Tokyo, Tak has worked with the likes of Vogue Japan, Numero Tokyo and Manifesto Magazine while his clientele vastly ranges from Fila and Uniqlo to Shiseido and Shu Uemura.
